

Speakers for September 13-17, 2009

Evangelist Mike Patterson

Mike Patterson led a life of crime and wickedness, in and out of jail and prison. Mike trusted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at the age of 22 while serving his second prison term in Ohio. Mike and his wife, Virginia, served the Lord at Baptist Children's Home in St. Louis, MI. Five years later they entered the Youth Pastorate to work at Faith Baptist Church in Muskegon, MI. God then led Mike into the Pastorate at Calvary Baptist Church of Shepherd, MI. Mike and his family are now members of Faith Baptist Church in Muskegon, MI. Mike and Jenny have three children, two are now married raising their own families and one (Kail their son) is still traveling with them.

Evangelist Clarence Hafelin

Evangelist Clarence Hafelin was converted in 1977 out of a hardened and rebellious lifestyle. Several years later God called Clarence to preach. He pursued formal training and finished degrees in both Pastoral and Missions Ministries. Clarence had 8 years of pastoral experience before entering the evangelistic ministry in 1994. He has worked with numerous churches both at home and abroad and has a heart for revival and evangelism. Clarence's wife, Linda, and their three children, Isaac, Rebekah, and Elijah, travel with him. They are sent from Cornerstone Baptist Church of Hamilton, NY, where they are members.

Dr. Paul McLaughlin

Dr. Paul McLaughlin is director of Hope Haven Gospel Mission, a homeless shelter / soup kitchen in Lewiston. McLaughlin was saved in 1983 and graduated from Trinity Baptist College in Jacksonville, FL, in 1987. He has preached at rescue missions, churches, and other venues, including chapel services at Hope Haven. He has been a Certified Pastoral Member of the National Christian Counselors Association since 2001 and a Professional Clinical Member of the National Christian Counselors Association since 2002.

Evangelist Russell Williams

Russell Williams, of Sanbornville, NH, has ministered in a variety of settings since he gave his life to Christ while living in Florida in 1994. Nurtured under the preaching of James Knox of Bible Baptist Church, Deland, FL, he ministered in nursing homes, rescue missions, on the radio, on the Internet, and at public events. In 2000 Williams began a ministry as a reenactor of the famous early-twentieth-century evangelist Billy Sunday, speaking at locations including Sunday's birthplace of Ames, IA, and at the Billy Sunday Home and Visitor Center in Winona Lake, IN. In 2005, Williams returned to New Hampshire and settled in Sanbornville, where he has continued to minister through writing and preaching.

Pastor Ron Meldrum

Pastor Ron Meldrum has pastored King's Valley Chapel since 2001. Meldrum, who grew up in Kingfield, also serves as the chairman of the board of directors of Hope Haven Gospel Mission in Lewiston, and founder/director of Baptist Ministries, an Internet ministry that helps in the creation and maintenance of web sites for independent Baptist organizations.
